INTRODUCED 1865.

TORPID LIVER Is the fruitful source of many diseases, prominent among which are DYSPEPSIA, SICK HEADACHE, COSTIVENESS, DYSENTERY, BILIOUS FEVER, AGUE and FEVER, JAUNDICE, PILES, RHEUMATISM, KID-NEY COMPLAINT, COLIC, etc. Symptoms of a Torpid Liver. Loss of Appetite and Nauses, the bowels are costive, but sometimes alternate with looseness, Pain in the Head, accompanied with a dull sensation in the back part, Pain in the right side and under the shoulder, blade, fullness after eating, with a disinclination to exertion of body or mind, Irritability of Temper, Low Spirits, Loss of Memory, with a feeling of having neglected some duty, General Weariness, Dizziness Fluttering at the Heart, Dots before the eyes.

highly colored Urine. IF THESE WARN-ings are unheeded, serious disesses will soon be developed. TUTT'S PILLS Are especially adapted to such cases. A single doze effects such a change of feeling as to aston-

eye, Kestlessness at night with fitful dreams, sh the sufferer. TUTT'S PILLS Are compounded from substances that are free from any properties that can injure the most delicate organization. They Search, Cleause, Purify and Invigorate the Entire System. By relieving the engarged liver, they cleause the blood from poisonous humors, and thus impart health and vitality to the body, causing the bowels to act naturally, without which no one can feel well.

A NOTED DIVINE SAYS: Dr. Tutt-Dear Sir: For ten years I have been a martyr to Dyspepsia, Constipation and Piles. Last Spring your Pills were recommend-ed to me; I used them (but with little faith.) I am now a well man, have a good appetite, di-gestion perfect, regular stools, piles gone, and I have gained forty nounds solid flesh. They are worth their weight in gold.

Rev. R. L. SIMPSON. Lanisville, Ky.

Their first effect is to increase the appetite, and cause the body to take on flesh, thus the system is nourished and by their Tonic Action on the Digestive Organs Regular stools are produced. DR. J. F. HAYWOGD, OF NEW YORK, SAYS:—

THE ONLY CONSOLATION .- On Thursday evening there was a telegram in one of the papers that the Prince Imperial bad had a narrow escape. Yesterday morning this was followed by the news of his death. The only consolar tion for his mother and friends is that his body has been recovered. Read by the light of a Daily News' latter, published yesterday, this should be some atonoment for his hard fate after all. The article in question describes a visit to Isandula, and the burial of the dead. We had heard that the Z alu disemboweled the dead through a superstitious creed of battle. The savage's friends decied that this was any proof of his brutal nature, but Mr. Forbes tells a very different story. Here is a grim picture butchery of that fatal night, which will never be forgotten in the English army. "In this ravine dead men lay thick-mere bones, with toughened, discolored skin, like leather, covering them, and clinging tight to them, the fl sh all wasted away. Some were almost whoily dismembered—heaps of clammy yellow bones. I forbear to describe the faces, with their blackened features and beards blanched by rain and sun. Every man had been disemboweled. Some were scalped, and others subjected to yet ghastlier mutilation. The clother had lasted better than the poor bodies they cov.r.d. and helped to keep the skeletons together. All the way up the slope I traced, by the ghastly teken of dead men, the fitful limned from the line of retreat during the ice of flight. "Most of the men hereabouts were infantry of the Twenty fourth. It was like a long s ring with knots in it, the string form d ot single corpses, the knots of c'usters of dead, where, as it seemed, little groups might have gathered to make a hopeless, gallant stand and die. I came on a gulley with a gun limber jammed on its edge, and the horses, their hides scored with assegai stabs hanging in their harness, down the steep face of the ravine. A little further on was a broken and battered ambulance wagon, with its team of males meld-ering in their harness, and around lay the corpses of soldiers, poor helpless wretches dragged out of an intercepted vehicle, and done to death without a chance for lite.' In the awful shadow of such a word painting as this the widowed, exiled, childless woman at Chiselhurst may still feel some little patience under her many affictions. There are few personance in history who have been been as the contract of the statement of the ages in history who have had a more bitter time of sadness and sorrow than the Empress of the French. The gloom of it all is intensified when all the comfort that can be offered to her is that the body of her son has been snatched from the sacrilegeous and mutilating hand of the savages murdered him.-London Correspondent N. Y. Times.

300 packages of POTOMAC FISH for sale by S. J. REED.

The fish are first class, and are as follows, viz: FAMILY ROE HERRING, in barrels, half barrels and kits.

SHAD, in barrels, half barrels and kits.

NO. 1 POTOMAC HERRING in balk half light refreshment; she has a complete language. NO. 1 POTOMAC HERRING, in bbls, half light refreshment; she has a complete luncheon served in most dainty style. The table is decked with artistic fancy.

The table cloths are of fine unbleached linen, with lace insertion and edging in the Louis XIV style, or else with Russian lace of two colors, sometimes headed with Rassian embroidery. The cypher is worked in white over the unbleached linen, or else in two colors to match the Russian lace, generally red and blue. Chocolate is often served Swedish tashion in large crystal cups with handles.

All the pretty trifles one has been able to gather together are set upon the luncheon table -Japanese cups, Venetian glasses, old plate of the period of Louis XIII or Louis XV, small spoons and forks of gold and enamel in the Henri II style, and dishes of Sevres porcelain by the side of old china plates. Luncheon is a fancy meal altogether; it comprises anything and everything in the way of food, from cavi are and Datch preserves to the most exquisite dainties in ico creams, comfire and fresh fruits in advance of the season.-Puris Letter.

GAMBETTA AS AN EPICURE -M. Gambetta is called by some of the most determined Paris Reds, "The Alcibiades of Paris," because he dwells in a magnificent house, keeps the finest of dwells in a magnificent nouse, keeps the fides of horses and the best of cooks and, rumor says, is building a luxurious bath room, which is to cost $8,000. It is no new thing, however, for trambetts to make himself comfortable; he was renowned in his student days for keeping a better table than any of his comrades. And he has good available than any or precedent. It is related of ter table than any of his comrades. And he has good revolutionary precedent. It is related of Danton that he was one morning suprised at breakfast by a sansculotte, who, glancing at the table, exclaimed to the revolutionary Minister of Justice: "What, citizen, dost thou eat partridges?" "Blockhead," replied Danton, "would you rather have them eaten by the ari-tocrats?"
